Bohonon, William E. Nye. The clerk of the Hustings Court is anxious to qualify and commission those judges of election who have not already done so, and they would do well to call at his office and procure their papers.

MEETING OF THE CLAY WARD REFORMERS .-The Clay Ward Reform Association had a meeting last night at Houck's Hall-the president, John S. Bethel, Esq., in the chair, and Mr. R. F. Hotze officiating as secretary.
The committee appointed at a previous meeting reported that they had waited upon Mr. Wilson Thomas and informed him of his nomination as Councilman. Mr. Thomas Dolly and Mary Jackson. I saw only half policy upon our books. I made an excepstated to one of their number, as was stated, that while he sympathized with the movement his business engagements were such as to prevent him from accepting the nomination. In place of Mr. Thomas Mr. Fred. C. Brauer was nominated.

In consequence of the card recent lished in this paper by Mr. Charles Hagen his nomination as Councilman was revoked. Mr. John S. Bethel, the president of the Association, was unanimously chosen to fill the vacancy.

It was represented that Mr. Thomas M. Saunders, one of the Reformers' nominees for justices of the peace, had announced was considered, therefore, that he had forfeited the nomination of this Association. His name was accordingly taken from the ticket, and Mr. D. B. Collins was selected in

The ticket, as completed, was then read over and adopted as follows: For Aldermen: Charles L. Todd, George S. Palmer, and E. D. Kelley.

For Councilmen: John A. Glazebrook, John J. King, Charles Phillips, John S. Bethel, and Fred. C. Braner. Mr. George A. Hundley, who was pre sent, was invited to address the Association.

He responded briefly, saying that he started making no speeches. He was willing to leave that to his opponent, who, according to his information, had by his remarks at the Conservative mass-meeting Tuesday night made a considerable number of votes for him (Hundley). He expected to be the next Sergeant of Richmond, provided he was fairly dealt with next Thursday.

field station, Chesterfield county, on the 15th of April, 1874. Promptly at 11 o'clock Judge Weisiger caused the court to be opened, and the prisoner was arraigned in the usual form.

Colonel Ambers appeared for the Commonwealth, and Messrs. Crump. George Wise, Austin Smith, and Socrates Brooks for the defendant. The following venire, which had been summoned, was called:

John Hatcher, Henry Schutte, Daniel Bli-ley, John Carroll, H. T. Hopkins, Henry Holland, F. G. Ruffin, P. C. Temple, William A. Eastman, A. G. Thomas, C. S. Chalkley, George Winfree, Jasper S. Clayton, Elihu Bowen, J. F. Brown, D. B. Goode, B. H. Morrisett, William Evans, Robert Toon, and R. B. Jones. Messrs. Carroll and Morrisett said they had formed an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the prisoner, and were told to stand aside; Mr. F. G. Ruffin was absent; Messrs, Hopkins, Eastman, Bowen, and Clayton were objected to by the defence, and Mr. Temple had heard the evidence at the examination before the magistrate.

The following jurors were sworn : Messrs. Hatcher, Schutte, Bliley, Holland, Thomas, Chalkley, Winfree, Brown, Goode, Evans, Toon, and Jones. The witnesses were about to be sworn burnt the house on account of his refusing to rent it to them. I did not mention any names. I was not before the examining court as a witness in this case, and did not wish to appear here."

Mr. J. B. Moore said: "I am secretary of the Merchants and Mechanics Insurance Company of Richmond. Mr. Eacho came into my office and said he wanted to insure the house of J. T. Boothman. I made memoranda of it is the name of J. T. Boothman, He (Eacho) then asked me in case the house burned down what I would do. I told bim that I would require Mr. Boothman to prove his loss according to the usual form in such cases. He then asked me if he could not insure the house in his own name. I told him when Mr. S. M. Page, as counsel for Dolly he could not. He then asked if he could insure it in his name as agent of Mr. Boothman, so that he could make up proofs of loss and collect the money without referring to Mr. Boothman, who lived in England. After some hesitation, I consented, and issued the policy in that way." Mr. Ambers: "Does Mr. Eacho own any stock in your company ?" A. "Yes-$1,000."

Mr. Ambers: "What would have been his proportion of the loss?" Witness: "One-two hundred and fiftieth

Mr. Ambers : "That is $2.50. Witness: "Mr. Eacho came into the office I think it was last Monday) and asked what The reports of the president and other offi he must do to draw the money. I told him was burned."

In answer to a question witness said: " Mr had no interest in it. There is no similar down. I had never said anything to him policy without inquiring into the circumknow there is a great deal of ignorance as to what insurance companies require. went to the police headquarters and saw Mr. Knox, and told him the house had been burned, and probably set on fire, and that we wanted the matter investigated. He sent Mr. Craddock to us, saying that he had per-fect confidence in him. I employed Mr. Craddock, agreeing to pay him $5 per day and his expenses. There was no contingent fee. He went up there and inquired into the matter. When he returned he reported to us that the house had been set on fire by the women, and that some one had instigated

The court then took a recess (at 2 P. M. for dinner.

When the court was reopened, at 3 P. M Judge Crump said the defence would not introduce any testimony. Colonel Ambers said to the court and jury that as the prosecution had failed to make out its case against the prisoner he would recommend that the jury bring in a verdict of not guilty. The jury, without retiring, then returned a verdict of not guilty, and the court ordered the discharge of the prisoner.

Mr. Page asked that Dolly Jackson should be tried at this term of the court and with the venire already summoned. The Court so ordered, and set the case for trial at 10 o'clock this morning. POLICE COURT, THURSDAY-Justice White.

Richard Harwood was sent to jail for fifteen days for drunkenness. Alexander Giles, guilty of threatening to kill Charles Coleman, was placed under bonds to keep the peace for twelve months. LADIES' FAIR ON CHURCH HILL .- A fair is now being held by the ladies of Union-Station Methodist church, the proceeds of which will be devoted to paying the debt due on the parsonage. The fair-room is very tastefully decorated, and is indeed a pleasant place to spend an evening. Fancy articles innumerable, ice cream, and cake may be found wherever the visitor turns: and besides this, there are hosts of pretty blue and black-eyed lassies ready to serve their customers if they only give them a chance. The saloons are fitted up with taste, and it is quite a luxury to rest awhile therein.

MULE DROWNED .- Yesterday afternoon while the tug Arctic was receiving a supply of coal at the foot of Eighteenth street, the shaft-mule of one of Mr. Wirt Roberts's teams, which was loading the steamer, backed into the dock and was drowned. One wheel of the cart was upon the steamer, when in some way the vessel "let go" from the wharf and the mule slid into the water. VIRGINIA MILITARY INSTITUTE .-- The GOV
